Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Tankersley of Mt. Auburn, Ill., brought out Mrs. Mattie Hankins Shipman of McIntire, Iowa. Mrs. Shipman is owner of the bootjack made by Lincoln that has been much in the public eye since the agitation, locating the Lincoln Way. It was shown by C. L. Gooday at meetings all over Illinois. The bootjack was cut out by Mr. Lincoln for his friend James Daniey, and for years it hung in his home and was viewed by many people now living, and its authenticity is so well established that there is no doubt in the minds of the family. They, however, are getting the affidavits of the people who know the circumstances
